Dear Sirs:

RE: USSN 10/059,080
Applicant: Edward O. Kenaschuk
HIGH LINOLENIC ACID FLAX

Responsive to the Notice to File Missing Parts of a Non-Provisional Application, we include herewith the filing fees, the additional claims fees and an executed declaration.

Regarding the rejections to the application, we note the following:

Page 12 was a blank page inadvertently inserted into the specification and has been cancelled.

Page 13 contained a figure not identified as such which was inserted into the specification. As discussed below, this page has been designated as Figure 3.

Page 24 was a blank page inserted into the specification in error and has been cancelled.

Page 26 was a blank page inserted into the specification in error and has been cancelled.

AMENDMENTS

A replacement specification is enclosed herewith. The amendments discussed below have been made and no other changes have been made to the application.

The description of the figures on page 4 has been amended to include the text description appearing on Figures 1 and 2 as originally filed. In addition, the figure previously appearing on page 13 (discussed above) has been designated as Figure 3 and the description appearing on page 13 has been inserted into the Figure 3 legend. No new matter has been added.

Copies of page 4 and Figures 1 and 3 (previously page 13) with the corrections indicated thereon are enclosed herewith.

Figures 1 and 2 have been redrawn and the text appearing at the bottom of Figure 1 has been deleted and has been inserted into the legend for Figure 1.

The remaining pages of the specification have been renumbered accordingly. No other amendments have been made and no new matter has been added.

We apologize for the confusion caused by the inadvertent insertion of blank pages within the specification.

Yours truly,

ADE & COMPANY
